COUNCIL DELAYS PROJECT APPROVAL

Because of strong protests by Councilman Leonard Wolf, the first portion of Palm Springs $1,550,000 sewer system, main trunk lines on North Palm Canyon Drive, was not approved by the City Council last night, and a special investigating committee will be established to investigate the project.

Wolf was backed in his protest by a group of men in the audience, including Joe Leonard, local general contractor, who demonstrated to the council (with sections of sewer pipe brought to the council chambers) how the job "was not correctly done."

THE COUNCIL ACTION was taken even though both the special engineering consultant firm of Foulke & Crist and City Public Works Director Frank Hamerschlag recommended that the job be accepted.

The city council did, however, stop the liquidation damages against the job contractor, Anro Construction Company of Los Angeles, which has been assessed $75 a day for every day that the construction has run over the contractual complete date. The firm is some 41 days over its contract, and with approved extensions, it will cost the firm nearly $2,000.

TROUBLE WITH the project goes back to the very first days of the excavation, and continued right through to the present day. The alignment of the sewer line, originally set in straight lines to the north, was changed and directed on a curve on the north end of town. Both Wolf and Leonard said that this type line should not be curved, and according to the manufacturer of the pipe, it should be put up tight and straight in line.

But far worse than the curve on the line, they said, is the fact that the new line leaks in an attempt to stop the leaking, the contractors put a substance into the line called "Bentonite," which is a very fine clay material that swells when it gets wet and fills any cracks or breaks in the line. The only thing wrong with it is that it washes out when water runs over it, it was explained.

Final performance of the Ken Jensen Elks Circus will start at 8 p.m., tonight, and tickets are available at the gate.

GOP Control Of House Is Predicted

Alcorn Reports To Eisenhower On Nov. 4 Election

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Republican National Chairman Meade Alcorn told President Eisenhower today that GOP candidates will score some upset victories and recapture control of the House in Tuesday's election.

ON THE BASIS of these reports, Alcorn predicted that the GOP will recapture control of the House. But he made no prediction on the senate campaign, which he called a tough one.

Except for two or three states, Alcorn said, the state Republican leaders reported that GOP prospects had improved markedly in the past two weeks while the Democratic campaigns had passed their peaks and deteriorated.

ALCORN IDENTIFIED to the President the states in which Republican upsets were predicted, but he declined to do so to reporters later.

The GOP chairman attributed the claimed improvement in GOP prospects largely to the campaigning of the President and Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

In his talk with newsmen, Alcorn said "I told the President I believed we could look for some real upsets in certain areas on Tuesday."

Two professional women golfers, Beverly Hanson, 35, and Joyce Ziske, 24, escaped serious injury late yesterday afternoon in an automobile collision at Indian Wells.

The two women, traveling east on Highway 111, collided with a car driven by Alvin Cox, 40, Palm Desert, who was traveling west.

Miss Ziske suffered only minor injuries.

PATRICK J. HILLINGS, candidate for attorney general of California, paid a visit to Palm Springs yesterday to walk the street and shake hands with local voters. Hillings and his wife, during their campaign tour in town, stopped momentarily to purchase a Desert Sun from carrier boy Dinnie Curnutt. (Desert Sun Photo).

ACCIDENTS, FIGHTS MAR HALLOWE'EN

Palm Springs and the desert area enjoyed a far from safe and uneventful Halloween last night, with an accident, fights, egg-throwing and malicious mischief filling the police reports for the evening.

Jerry Dirnberger, 24, of Palm Springs, as treated for a cut over the eye, a split lip, a broken tooth and minor abrasions, after he was beaten and kicked by four Banting youths in front of a local restaurant. According to police, the four boys walked up to Dirnberger and asked him for six cents, and before he could reply they began beating him.

ARRESTED WERE three of the four youths, Wayne Ralph Phillips, 16, who was booked for possession of alcoholic beverages, Joe Don Hirst, 20, booked on assault and battery, and Glenn L. Huston, 21, booked on furnishing liquor to juveniles. The fourth boy has not been located.

On Sunrise Way at Amado, James C. Brown, 17, of 2002 Belding Drive, was injured when his car hit a soft shoulder and turned over twice. He was taken to Desert Hospital where he is reported in "very critical condition." Members of the hospital staff today refused to give out the extent of the youth's injuries.

A REPORT FROM the Palm Springs Trailer Park notified police that juveniles were throwing rocks at house trailers, and some youths were questioned.

Two broken windows were reported to police last night, and there were a few cases of window soaping.

Early in the evening police handled many reports of juvenile complaints, but later in the evening, between 10 and 11 p.m., more than 60 reports flooded the department with calls of egg and tomato throwing at cars and homes.

POLICE HAD LEARNED that junior and senior high school students had stockpiled more than 90 dozen eggs to be used Halloween night, and from reports most of the eggs were used. Police confiscated some four dozen, and two crates of tomatoes. The focal point of the egg throwing and tomato smashing was in the Desert Tract and along El Cielo from McCallum Way to Ramon Road.

On the brighter side of the news, a local resident reported this morning that he and his wife had to leave last night, and fixed little packages of candy for "trick and treaters" and left them by the front door. On the container was a note which said "this is an honor system, please take one only, so there will be enough for everyone." The resident said that there were still some left today, but more than 50 children had paid them a visit.

'More Than Miracle,' Mine Officials Say

SPRINGHILL, N.S. (UPI) — Seven more miners were brought safely out of the shattered Springhill coal mine at dawn today after eight days of thirst and hunger 13,000 feet below the surface.

"This is a miracle; no, more than a miracle," said a mine official.

THE MEN WERE able to wave weakly to relatives and townspeople who gathered quickly when news of the rescue raced through this community grieving for 74 men known dead or missing.

The survivors were given water, coffee and soup at the pithead and then were taken to the hospital for treatment and solid food.

The men were in "pretty good condition," according to a rescuer.

THE RESCUE OF the men, entombed since Oct. 23, brought to 100 the number of miners rescued from the No. 2 colliery, including 12 who were trapped for six days. Thirty-four bodies have been recovered and 40 men still are missing from the 174 originally in the mine.

Rescuers dug frantically through 112 feet of loose rock and rubble known as "gob" to reach the seven early today. The first glue to the location of the survivors was a groan heard by one of the workers. The rescuers yelled and pounded and got more groans in reply.

ALL THE MEN had been brought to the surface by 5:15 a.m. p.m. Rescue worker Thornton Henwood, first man to reach the little group, said water was given to them immediately.

Those rescued were identified as Maurice Ruddick, 46, father of 12 children, who kept up the men's spirits by singing; Herbert Pepperdine, 36, Byron Martin, 42, Douglas Jewkes, 37, Currie Smith, 35, Garnet Clarke, 29, and Frank Hunter, 49. Hunter's twin, Wilfred, was rescued Thursday and had reported Frank dead.

THIS STRICKEN community was visited Friday by Prince Philip, Consort of Queen Elizabeth, who cut short an official visit to Ottawa to visit the rescued miners in the Springhill Hospital. He also went to the pithead for a firsthand look and held discussions with company officials.

Today's rescue, described as "miraculous" by the rejoicing members of the survivor's families, came on the second anniversary of a 1956 mine disaster that killed 39 men in the No. 4 colliery, just next to the pit shattered last week.

THE MAIN RESCUE operations have been conducted at the 13,000 and 12,000-foot levels of the mine, the only levels regarded as possible havens for the missing men because of strongly buttressed supporting walls. Other levels probably were caved in or filled with poisonous gas, officials said. The men had been in the mine eight days and 11 hours.

Rescuer Tells Thrill of Finding More Men Alive

By THORNTON HENWOOD As Told To UPI

SPRINGHILL, N.S. (UPI) — We were working down along the longwall face of the 13,000-foot level . . . working like hell.

We were shifting around. It was kinda quiet for a minute. Then we heard three faint taps on the air pipe. The pipe was sticking through the rubble. It was one of those pipes, like the one they found the other day when they found the other 12. It had apparently been smashed in the bump (the earth shock that collapsed parts of the mine).

God, we went crazy down there after we heard the tapping.

We yelled and hollered.

We heard somebody yell.

It was Barney. Byron "Barney" Martin, 42.

The poor guy was all alone in there. All alone for nine days. The poor guy.

John Calder and Matt Pearson first heard the taps. They could hardly believe it.

Then we dug like hell through that gob. God did we dig. I don't know how long it took us but I guess it seemed like hours.

It wasn't until they got Martin out that we realized there were more.

They heard more scratching. That's when we found six more still alive.

It's just unbelievable.

Mrs. Leona Adams

Painted Hills Developer Dies

Mrs. Leona Adams, 57-year-old Palm Springs woman who pioneered the development of the Painted Hills Rancho homestead community, died at Desert Hospital yesterday afternoon.

She had been ill for the past month.

A native of Elko, Texas, Mrs. Adams moved to Palm Springs in 1942. She lived at 344 Ash Road.

FOR 15 YEARS, Mrs. Adams handled clothing alterations for several Palm Springs shops. In 1949, she and her husband, Charles E. Adams, were among the first to establish a homestead in the Painted Hills area, on mountain slopes eight miles northwest of Palm Springs.

In succeeding years, Mrs. Adams led development of the government land into what is now a community of more than 100 homes as she recently initiated plans to incorporate the area into a full-fledged city.

AS CHAIRMAN OF the Painted Hills Association, Mrs. Adams was in the forefront of a campaign to bring water and power to the area. Her campaign ended successfully last February after nine years of waterless, powerless progress in the cooperative foothills project.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Adams leaves two sisters, Pauline Austin and Isabelle Patch, of Palm Springs; two brothers, W. A. Holman and Holly Holman, of San Gabriel; two sons, Dr. W. C. McCall, of Anaheim, and V. R. McCall, of Santa Barbara; three daughters, Doris Peterson, of Los Angeles and Norma Truax and Marlene Larraby, of Palm Springs and eight grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted in Wiefels and Son Mortuary Chapel at 1:30 p.m., Monday, by Rev. Jack Morrow, of Four Square Gospel Church. Interment will follow at Desert Memorial Park.

in his campaign to retain his title as state treasurer—a title sought by businessman Alan Cranston.

In Palm Springs, the election touches on Desert Hospital and its board of directors. Campaigning for two board seats are incumbent William P. Aiken and incumbent Clifford E. Babin.

Arnold Runwell was a candidate, but was appointed to the board last week as successor to the late Florian Boyd.

STATE AND NATIONAL offices are, of course, of equal—but less personal—interest.

Starting at the top of the ballot, voters will have their choice of gubernatorial candidates Edmund G. Brown, Democratic state attorney general, or William F. Knowland, Republican United States Senator.

Both are familiar figures in the resort area.

HOPING TO RETAIN his office as lieutenant governor is Harold J. Powers, Republican, who is opposed by Democrat Glenn M. Anderson, whose occupation is listed as business development.

A three-way battle is underway for the office of secretary of state. Incumbent, and Republican, Frank M. Jordan faces Democrat attorney Henry P. Lopez and a Prohibition candidate, Minister Mel J. Miller.

JOCKEYING FOR the attorney general's office, to be vacated by Brown, are Republican Congressman Patrick J. Hillings, who visited here Friday, and Superior Court Judge Stanley J. Mosk, his Democratic opponent.

Seeking the Fourth District seat on the State Board of Equalization is Richard Nevins, Democrat, and incumbent Robert E. McDavid.

CLAIR ENGLE, Democratic Congressman, is opposing Gov. Goodwin J. Knight in the race for U. S. Senator in the Congressional section of the ballot sheet.

In the judicial department, Jesse W. Carter and B. Rey Schauer are seeking posts as associate justices of the Supreme Court, and Lloyd Griffin is sole candidate for the post of presiding justice of the District Court of Appeal, Fourth District Appellate District.

For associate justice of the District Court of Appeal, Fourth District Appellate District, the ballot voters will mark Tuesday carries only the name of Stanley W. Mus-

'Stewardship' To Be Sermon

PALM DESERT — "A Story of Stewardship" will be the sermon topic of the Rev. Warren C. McClain, at the 11 a.m. Sunday worship service at the Palm Desert Community Church.

"Loyalty Sunday" also will be observed at the service and members will be invited to make pledges to the 1959 budget.

Miss Barrie Holdsworth will sing a soprano solo, "In the Garden."

A short congregational meeting will follow the service and two new elders will be elected.

Religious Census To Start Sunday

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — A religious census of the entire community will be conducted by the Desert Hot Springs Council of Protestant Churches starting Sunday.

The census, scheduled to continue for one week, will cover an area ranging to Highway 99 on the south, the mountains to the north and west and as far east as

Lulu Turner Services to Be Held Monday

Funeral services will be conducted here Monday for Lulu May Turner, 69, who died yesterday at her home, 1656 San Lorenzo Road.

A native of California, Mrs. Turner had lived in Palm Springs for nine years. She leaves her son, William J. Turner; a sister, Blanche B. Bryant, and one grandson.

Rosary will be conducted at Wiefels and Son Mortuary Chapel at 8 p.m., Sunday, by Rev. Michael O'Donohue, of St. Theresa's Catholic Church. Funeral Mass will be held at St. Theresa's at 9 a.m., Monday.

Interment follows at Welwood Murray Memorial Park.

Estimated fire losses in the U.S. for the first six months of 1958 came to $581,235,000, according to the National Board of Fire Underwriters, compared with $530,155,000 for the corresponding period of 1957 and $517,403,000 in 1956.

Postal Station Contract Awarded to Plaza Store

Postmaster Merritt Williams today announced that a contract for operation of Palm Springs Postal Station No. 1 has been awarded to Joel Edith Doyle, operator of the Carousel Gift Shop in The Plaza.

Williams said the present station at Thrifty shopping center will suspend operations on Wednesday, Nov. 5.

The new station will open the following day, Nov. 6, at the Carousel shop.

Station hours, which remain the same, are from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, and from 9 a.m. until noon on Saturday.

DHS Woman's Club to Meet

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—Members of the Desert Hot Springs Woman's Club will conduct their regular business meeting at 1:30 p.m., Nov. 4, at Eriksen's.

Chapel Dedication Set for Sunday

tion ceremonies for the new Community Chapel will be observed here with a special Sunday service starting at 11 a.m.

Dr. Jesse F. Perrin, superintendent of the Congregational Conference of Southern California, will conduct the dedicatory service at the chapel, located at Thumb Drive and Sanborn Street here.

Erected by members of all area church groups, to "serve the religious and cultural interests of the community," the chapel includes an auditorium, classrooms and a kitchen.

First plans for use of the chapel call for formation of a Sunday School and programming of worship services by Rev. Dwight H. Ball. Various community organizations will also schedule activities.

Following Sunday's service, community residents are invited to a potluck dinner and reception for Dr. and Mrs. Perrin.

Mrs. Mildred Potter entertained Mrs. Luna Snellings and Major and Mrs. George L. Jordan last Sunday night at Shadow Mountain Club. The Jordons are from Toronto, where the major is vice president of the International Gold Market, Limited.

The Wednesday Bridge Luncheon

at Shadow Mountain is growing in popularity. Mrs. Archie Sumpter of Palm Springs entertained a group of eight.

A card from Cleo Poulsen and Hazel Sergeant from the French Riviera was immediately followed by a letter written on board ship, that they were en route home. Hazel will spend several weeks in Richland, Mich., finishing up legal business affairs before she returns to open her desert home on Shadow Mountain Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Robinson were in the desert a few days on their way home from a Midwest visit with family and friends. The Robinsons spend most of their time in Watsonville, Calif., but own a home here on Candlewood Drive.

Miss Dorothy Vellier and Bill Robertson were married recently in Las Vegas. Mrs. Robertson is in the Bank of America and is manager Phil Franklin's private secretary.

Firecliff Lodge was a busy spot early Monday morning when the Palm Desert Players had their first meeting, which will be a weekly affair. Plans for a membership drive were formulated. Coffee and rolls were served and the spirit of the meeting really gave a good start for the whole week. In the same spot, Cliff Henderson was serving breakfast to his Shadow Mountain Club entertainment committee.

A few of the ladies attending the El Dorado Golf Tournament were guests at Sage and Sun over the weekend. Mrs. Eva Faslschow and Mrs. Richard were players from San Diego and Coronado, while Mrs. Glen Hicks and Mrs. Dorothy Elliott were from Beverly Hills.

The Shadow Mountain Club Ladies Golf Association will have its regular play, Monday, Nov. 3, followed by the monthly luncheon. The first mixed two ball foursome started Sunday, Oct. 26. These will take place the last Sunday of every month from the Tee House.

Sunny Dunes Village Construction Nears Half-Way Mark This Week

Construction of Sunny Dunes Village, a new, 82-home Palm Springs housing project, today neared the halfway mark, developers Tom Paul and Sam Kert, announced.

Paul and Kert, sole owners of the $2 million development, said that most of the 40 homes started in the initial building phase have been completed.

SUNNY DUNES Village, located at Calle Santa Cruz and East Sunny Dunes Road, is reportedly the first Village subdivision to be entirely constructed by a force of locally recruited sub-contractors and material suppliers.

All sub-contractors associated with the development are Chamber of Commerce members.

PLANS FOR THE development call for construction of 82- three-bedroom, two-bath homes selling at prices ranging from $16,950 to $17,450 according to Paul.

A prominent San Fernando Valley subdivider, Paul became a Palm Springs resident some four years ago, when he and Kert purchased the Sunny Dunes Village property for future development.

Paul, a builder for more than 25 years, currently has three tracts in the San Fernando Valley.

IN ADDITION to being co-owner of the Sunny Dunes development, Paul is also general contractor.

Kert, Paul's associate in the local development, is well-known in the investment field in Detroit and Tucson, Arizona. He is also a Palm Springs resident.

The development owners said the Village tract is progressing rapidly. More than half of the initial 40 homes have been sold, they reported.

Recommendations On State-Wide Ballot Propositions

The third and concluding review and recommendations of The DESERT SUN to voters on the Propositions appearing on the ballot for the election November 4 follows:

PROPOSITION 13. SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

Provides that the State School Superintendent will be appointed by the State Board of Education with advice and consent of the Senate instead of being elected by the people.

Proponents claim growing trend among States to appoint school heads and contend that better qualified and more cooperative officials would thus be assured.

Opponents cite present requirements that candidates have a high degree of professional training, deplore the loss to the people of their right to choose a school head, and point to dangers of undesirable political influence and control in the school system.

The only positive way to keep politics out of the schools is to keep the office elective. Vote NO on 13.

PROPOSITION 14. COMPENSATION OF LOCAL OFFICERS.

Would delete constitutional provision against increasing salaries of county, township or municipal officers after election or during term of office.

Usual arguments in favor are that higher salaries would attract better candidates and would eliminate favoritism in pay adjustments possible for appointees only.

Opposed on grounds candidate knows salary before seeking office and that it is best policy to have a fixed figure rather than being in a position of using influence of office to pressure for raises.

Present system of classifying counties with legislature setting salaries accordingly is best from public viewpoint. Vote NO on 14.

PROPOSITION 15. BOXING MATCHES.

Submits to vote of the people an act of the legislature repealing an initiative law passed by an electorate in 1914 prohibiting boxing on Sundays or Memorial Day.

Cited by proponents as the last of the "blue laws" in California it is held discriminatory in that other athletic events and contests of all types such as rodeos, races, etc., are permitted. Also as unconstitutional invasion of individual freedom and civil rights.

Arguments against repeal are based mainly on moral and religious grounds in preserving the Sabbath and Memorial holiday.

Actually it is doubtful if repeal of the law would result in many boxing or wrestling matches on the days involved since such events under ordinary circumstances are not commercially profitable on days of rest, leisure, worship, travel or outdoor recreation. Each to his or her own conviction, but our recommendation is to treat all fairly by voting YES on 15.

PROPOSITION 16. TAXATION OF NON-PROFIT SCHOOLS

Would repeal tax exemption voted by people of California in 1952 to religious and non-profit schools and place properties on tax base.

Proponents argue that some $2,000,000 in yearly revenues would be gained and that all children should attend public schools.

Opponents point out that non-profit schools attended by more than 300,000 children are saving the taxpayers of California $118,000,000 annually, that no other State taxes such schools, that it is un-American to prohibit private schools and unjust to add another tax to those whose children are enrolled in same as they are already paying public school taxes, and that the cost of construction of more buildings, hiring more teachers and increased expenses if all children were forced to enroll in the public schools would result in greatly higher taxes to everyone.

We join the overwhelming majority of clergymen of all denominations, practically every candidate to high office and civic leaders everywhere, in recommending that you vote NO on 16.

PROPOSITION 17. STATE SALES, USE AND INCOME TAX RATES.

Would reduce State sales and use tax rate from 3 to 2 percent and increase income taxes to as high as 46 percent, the latter being retroactive for the year 1958.

Arguments in favor are based on "tax equality" by reducing the sales tax paid by the majority and increasing income taxes in the $5,000 a year or more brackets. Claim is made that it will produce ample revenues on an "ability to pay" basis.

Opposed by almost every candidate, civic and school organization in the State who declare that it would wreck the economy, cripple the schools and public institutions and bring governmental bankruptcy unless quick action were taken to levy new taxes all along the line.

The measure has been almost universally decried as reckless and irresponsible and its dangers so widely known that there should not be the slightest doubt in the mind of voters in stamping a NO on 17.

PROPOSITION 18. EMPLOYER-EMPLOYEE RELATIONS.

This amendment would add a section to the constitution guaranteeing the right of every individual to free employment and would prohibit compulsory membership in a union being a requirement for employment, together with penalties for violation and procedure for recovery of damages.

Opponents claim it would "wreck" unions, result in lower wages, eliminate the right to strike and could only be changed by a vote of the people.

Proponents declare it would restore the inalienable right to workers of choosing whether or not they wish to join a labor union, strengthen labor organizations by insuring voluntary and democratic processes, remove labor matters from partisan politics or legislative debate and pressure, prevent arbitrary and dictatorial acts by labor leaders and generally improve both labor and general economic conditions in California as it has in other States where adopted.

Careful reading of the Amendment, which is in simple and direct language, shows it to be plainly and simply a right-to-work measure in accord with the Taft-Hartley Act providing for the adoption of such by each State, and reveals nothing contrary to sound public policy. Our recommendation is a vote YES on 18.

'He's Running the Pump'

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

Oh, how I'd love to have that thrill, But, gosh I guess I never will.

Am speaking now of the Irish Hospital Sweepstakes which gave two Villagers the thrill of a lifetime Wednesday.

I'VE EVEN QUIT investing in Sweepstakes. It's so frustrating to make all of those plans, map out the itinerary of the trip I'm going to take with the winnings, pack and say goodbye to all of my friends.

And then when nothing happens unpick, cancel all reservations, say hello again.

It's the same with the 5 and 10 at Agua Caliente. Even the $2 show bets at the local tracks where such practices are legal.

BUT, ANYWAY, it would be nice to have that thrill like those Villagers did the other day.

They call it playing for keeps. But it isn't. They only keep what Uncle Samuel allows them to.

Everybody loves a winner. Newspapers in three cities Wednesday night proclaimed "Local woman wins $140,000 in Irish Sweepstakes."

ONE WAS HERE where the winner was living at the time. The other in Los Angeles where she owns a home. The third in Santa Monica where she owns a business establishment.

It's nice to be a winner. Also nice to collect.

I AM BURNED UP because I was burned up.

Sounds odd, but it's true. You may, or may not, have noticed that I was absent from my usual spot in The Sun Thursday.

I wasn't playing hooky.

I hope you missed me. If you didn't, you don't need to tell everybody.

WHAT HAPPENED was that the matrix in which that piece was impressed, was burned up when the type was being transferred to the metal cylinder for the press.

The original type was already in the Hell Box, that receptacle for matter for which there is no further use.

That meant that This Side for that day along with a lot of other good (note the 'good') material never did see the light of publicity.

THAT WIND DEAL is still blowing. Comes another communication.

"Why doesn't the State Highway Division or someone in authority, put up signs 'Wind Area' on Indian Avenue and on Highway 111, north of the city, where the wind gets strong at times?"

"Like they do in mountain country, 'Slide Area'."

"At least that would warn motorists that they might run into some blasts."

AND GEORGE LAFAYETTE, who started this all when he suggested trees be planted along Indian Avenue north of town to break the force of the wind, came up with a new idea.

"Would I be breaking the law if I bought some trees and personally planted them up there?" he asked.

"Maybe other people would do the same and the county or whoever is in charge, would be ashamed into doing something about it."

Dear Abby . . .

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem that is so terrible I don't know where to go with it, so please answer me in the paper. I have been married for nine weeks and I am still a "miss." My husband looks for excuses so he won't have to be a husband to me. I don't know what is the matter with him. When I try to show him some affection he starts to get red and his hands shake. He is a clean-cut, church-going man of 32 and I am 26, but I think he believes there is something wrong with married love. He would die before he went to our preacher with his problem but what am I going to do?

DEAR STILL: If your husband refuses to see his clergyman (which would be my first suggestion) perhaps he will see a marriage counselor or a doctor. He has to be convinced that some of the ideas he has grown up with are wrong. He needs professional help and I urge you to insist that he go at once. Good luck.

DEAR ABBY: I live in the city and I thought roosters were not allowed in the city. I am a sound sleeper and every morning about 5 this rooster across the street sounds off and wakes up my whole family. Can anything be done about this?

DEAR DISTURBED: There is not only a Law stating where roosters can be kept, but also a Law against disturbing the peace. Your neighbor is breaking both. Talk to a lawyer. A rooster will have to get up pretty early in the morning to fool a lawyer.

DEAR ABBY: What's wrong with me? I am a widow who wants to get married again. I've offered this man a completely furnished home, a steady income and a car of his own, and after three years he is still playing hard to get.

DEAR LONESOME: SOME men would rather be kept guessing than "kept." You're too generous.

DEAR ABBY: We were recently invited to a church wedding. The bride's father and mother were divorced and he had remarried, but that's another story. His first wife was present. His second wife was there with their 19-month-old baby. She made no attempt to silence the child when the father walked the bride down the aisle and the baby called "Da Da" and waved to him. This caused a big disturbance and you could see the minister's hair standing on end. During the ceremony she let the baby crawl to the father and he held her. After the wedding the bride was ignored as her father was busy accepting congratulations on the new baby. What is your opinion of a father who would behave this way?

A woman at the party told Frank, "I'm going to Hollywood to write your life story."

"Your papers have already written it — they even had me married!" Frank said. (He told me privately he and American-born Lady Beatty both resented stories they will marry.)

"We'll continue to see each other because we're friends but we both have friends all over the world," he said.

Suddenly Frank told the party guests, "Hey! I forgot to tell everybody there's food out there."

Frank led the way, especially to the caviar, shouting that his dad and mother had brought him up on this stuff. I had to go catch a jet. Frank said he goes next to Miami to film "Hole in the Head."

"I'll be in New York 10 days seeing some shows," he said. "I'll be at the — —," and he named the hotel. He wasn't really much changed from 18 years ago when he was Tommy Dorsey's skinny little band singer out at Meadowbrook, where the kids of the year 1940 used to quit dancing and crowd round the bandstand to listen.

The Midnight Earl . . . Jackie Gleason — invited on Arthur Godfrey's morning TV show — suggested he go on five days straight. It's in the works (for next week) . . .

Duke Ellington's son Mercer hired his dad's band to cut a record album. . . . Monique Van Vooren got on a plane to Miami, her luggage went on a Europe-bound plane — so she's shopping in Miami. . . . Bob Hope's investing his oil well loot in N. H. wood real estate. . . . Photographers have been hunting Mrs. Ronald Colman and George Sanders in Soan, can't find 'em together. . . . Singer Bill Haves and his five kids'll be used for Christmas toy promotions.

EARL'S PEARLS: Suggested safety slogan for drivers: "Instead of one more for the road, have one less for the traffic."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: No matter how the college alumni travel to the football game, they all end up riding the coach.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: The reason so many married women are working today is that they can't stand watching daytime TV.

They tell of the woman who divorced a famous violinist and insured his hands for $100,000, explaining: "His playing isn't worth that much to me — but his all-mony is." . . . That's earl, brother.

EARL WILSON:

Frankie Doesn't Seem Uppity

NEW YORK — Although Frank Sinatra's been taken up by the British ladies in London, he certainly hasn't been acting lordly to we commoners who knew him when he was fresh out of Hoboken.

"Will this have gone to his head?" I wondered in London the other day when I got into the Dorchester "lift" to ride up to his penthouse suite, the Harlequin, where he was giving a small cocktail party.

A moment later a servant, answering my ring, said, "Mr. Sinatra is still in the bath." I feared the worst.

But suddenly there was Frank — inserting studs in his tux shirt — asking a British columnist and me, "Can I get a drink for you kids?" — a kindly remark to two old warhorses. As the dozen guests arrived, not a title among them, Frank sat beside a burning fireplace nursing a Jack Daniels bourbon and led the conversation into non-regal paths.

One British friend who knows Frank can take a kidding said to him, "On your last album, you sounded a lot like Julius La Rosa." Frank grinned, and later paid a fat compliment to Vic Damone. "He's got the best set of pipes of anybody singing today," he said.

Frank's amazed, I believe, by his London popularity. "I thought I got a lot of mail at home, but here — —," he remarked.

(Over at Siegi's Club, which Frank visited for lunch, I heard a Britisher say, "In London, now Sinatra is bigger than God.")

That's why some British papers — completely without conscience in their glamour reporting — practically shadow him, and if they find no tidbits, compose fiction about him. The great London columnist, Cassandra, should blast that part of the British press which happily prints lies about American stars if it can find no truth that's exciting.

A woman at the party told Frank, "I'm going to Hollywood to write your life story."

"Your papers have already written it — they even had me married!" Frank said. (He told me privately he and American-born Lady Beatty both resented stories they will marry.)

"We'll continue to see each other because we're friends but we both have friends all over the world," he said.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Story Maintains 'Clean'

HOLLYWOOD — The quiz show scandals apparently haven't hurt the career of $64,000 Challenge emcee Ralph Story one iota. Groucho Marx is after Ralph to join him in his You Bet Your Life setup and The Church of the Air has requested a re-run of "The First Christmas in California," which Story filmed five years ago.

As for Challenge itself, Story is still sticking to his diaphanous story: "Nobody can tell me that show wasn't as clean as a hound's tooth — unless something went on behind my back. I KNOW they put $16,500 in the kitty every week to take care of the winners, and NOBODY can convince me the show wasn't on the level!"

MOVIE MUSICMAKER Dimitri Tiomkin's dim view of writing music for television: "I won't write music for the spectacles. They're too 'one-shot,' too 'made up,' too 'arty,' too inclined to cram 'something for everybody' into one 90-minute show. Besides, they're gone with the wind, like today's headlines. TV is a miracle as a technical achievement but its taste is toward cheapness. Great movie directors like George Stevens could do things just as fast but they won't."

P.S.: Stevens, who took six months to shoot "The Diary of Anne Frank" at Fox, is getting $1,500,000 to produce and direct his next, same studio: Fulton Oursler's "Greatest Story Ever Told," based on the Life of Christ. . . . You're right, Dimmy — television IS cheaper than movies!

FOX PRODUCER Jerry Wald is wangling TV's John Frankenheimer to direct his next movie, "Winesburg, Ohio." . . . You know about those groans that go up from the TV viewers whenever a movie star steps into camera range to start plugging his picture?

There'll be no more groaning if the stars have their way. Greg Peck, Jimmy Stewart, Cary Grant and Lauren Bacall are ganging up to keep 'em off the air — first, because appearing on such shows as Ed Sullivan's and Steve Allen's to PLUG rather than to ENTERTAIN builds up audience antagonism instead of interest — second, because the stars don't get paid for such p.a.s.

SHAKESPEARE SAID it: "The Play's the Thing." . . . Guild Films is preparing a distaff Western series, Belle Starr, to star Mari Blanchard, and The Mississinipi Gambler, with John Carroll holding a royal flush in the starring script.

Martin & Lewis will be reunited again, but only on the dais.

Dean & Jerry will both be on hand in the Beverly Hilton Nov. 23 for the Friars Club salute to Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz. . . . The Modernaires joined Red Skelton's road show, "The Clown and the Baton."

Proctor and Gamble applied for half-sponsorship of the Emmy Awards on NBC next season so it looks like they'll be splashing suds at us instead of Oldsmobiles.

REXALL INSISTED on an hour (it's cheaper) but playwrights Bella and Sam Spewack insisted on 90 minutes for a spec telecast of their hit play, "My Three Angels." So the deal's off — Rexall won't be angeling "Angels."

Jerry Lewis appeared on a local interview show on KTLA and blasted the critics of TV on newspapers' "cross - country as 'caustic, rude, unkind and sinister.'" Maxwell Anderson said it more gracefully, once upon a time, when the Broadway critics panned one of his plays. He called them "the Jukes family of Journalism."

But Lewis and Anderson and the critics still go on and on and on. . . . And on!

PAUL HARRISON finished shooting all of Ann Sothern's new comedy series for Desilu and checked in as executive producer with Desilu's rival, Screen Gems. . . . Add new series for next season: Filmmaster Productions' Shark Street, concerning "a soldier of fortune located on the waterfront at San Pedro, Calif."

Johnny Desmond says he got the surprise of his life the other night — he went to see a mystery movie and they let him sit down during the last 10 minutes!

The Tag of Television: MGM-TV's new Northwest Passage series has created new interest in turning Upstate New York's Fort Crown Point into a national shrine, Roger's Rangers, depicted in the rough-ridin' telecasts, headquartered there in the French and Indian War and the Rockefeller Foundation is reportedly ready to shell out some coin to turn the tourist - bait trick. And all a result of the public interest stirred up by the series.

MINNESOTA MINING will sponsor a one-hour special, "Art Carney Meets Peter and the Wolf," on ABC-TV Nov. 30. It'll be aimed at aiming you & you & you toward the department store counters that carry MM's Christmas gift-wrappings.

G. F. Theatre dusted off its 1957 Christmas show, "Trail to Christmas," directed by Jimmy Stewart and starring Stewart and you'll be seeing it this Christmas too.

QUOTES

SAN FRANCISCO — Chief Justice Earl Warren, on states rights:

"As long as we look upon the institution of government as the servant of all the people we need have no fear of a conflict between the states and the federal government."

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — Gov. Orval E. Faubus, after receiving $11,000 from Louisiana segregationists for his private segregated school setup:

"With such support we cannot lose."

WICHITA, Kan. — Vice President Richard M. Nixon, in a campaign speech:

"The voters are realizing in increasing numbers that our opponents have run out of gas."

WASHINGTON — Attorney Mathias F. Correa, in asking the Supreme Court to overturn the 10-day trial jail sentence imposed on Marie Torre, New York Herald Tribune TV columnist, for refusing to reveal a source of information:

"Unless reversed the conviction will lead aid to any forces seeking to choke off the flow of news to news media."

AND GEORGE LAFAYETTE, who started this all when he suggested trees be planted along Indian Avenue north of town to break the force of the wind, came up with a new idea.

"Would I be breaking the law if I bought some trees and personally planted them up there?" he asked.

"Maybe other people would do the same and the county or whoever is in charge, would be ashamed into doing something about it."

THE IMPERIAL OF 1959

Today, America has a new measurement for excellence in motoring.

IMPERIAL FOR 1959... a car whose great dignity is matched by an eagerness of spirit.

A car whose new Royal Coach Body gives passengers more space... a car which makes available new front seats which swivel downward to make entry and exit easy and graceful.

IMPERIAL FOR 1959... a car which combines spectacular handling ease with a firm sense of absolute control... whose newly designed engine develops enormous power with fewer engine revolutions... so it need never race or raise its voice.

A car which can be equipped with Auto-Pilot to remind you of speed limits, and to maintain a steady turnpike pace, up hill and down, without so much as a touch of the accelerator.

A car that comes to you in all its carefully crafted excellence from America's newest automotive plant.

IMPERIAL FOR 1959... excellence without equal. A boastful statement? See it. Drive it. And then decide.

WHY ARE THE LABOR BOSSES SO AFRAID OF VOLUNTARY UNIONISM?
BETTER KNOWN AS THE RIGHT TO WORK

THE REASON THEY GIVE

The Labor Bosses say Proposition No. 18 will lower wages and wreck unions. But what are the facts?

- ✓ 18 states now have Voluntary—as against compulsory—unionism in these 18 states—
- Average weekly earnings of factory production workers have risen 20% faster than in the 30 states with compulsory unionism.
- Union membership has increased 29% faster than in the 30 states with compulsory unionism.

*Sources: U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, National Bureau of Economic Research.

THE REAL REASON

Apparently the Labor Bosses are afraid of Union Democracy.

Because No. 18 will not only protect the right - to - work of every Californian whether he wants to join or not . . .

It will do just as much, if not more, to protect the Union members themselves. For No. 18 will restore to union members their greatest single weapon of protest—the "right to strike" against corrupt, unfair or inefficient labor boss practices by quitting or threatening to quit the union.

THE RIGHT TO WORSHIP AS YOU PLEASE IS YOURS
THE RIGHT OF FREE SPEECH IS YOURS
THE RIGHT TO VOTE BY SECRET BALLOT IS YOURS
THE RIGHT TO WORK WHEREVER AND WHENEVER YOU PLEASE

WILL BE YOURS WHEN ENOUGH PEOPLE JOIN YOU IN VOTING "YES" ON PROPOSITION NO. 18
PROPOSITION NO. 18 IS NOT ANTI-UNION!

IT DOES NOT TAKE AWAY

- YOUR RIGHT TO BARGAIN!
- YOUR RIGHT TO STRIKE!
- YOUR RIGHT TO A UNION!
- YOUR RIGHT TO CONTRACT!

Be sure that Labor Bosses can not spend your Union Dues or make you lose your job without YOUR SECRET BALLOT.

This is the Union mans BILL OF RIGHTS and don't let anybody tell you that it isn't

All Saints Day To Be Observed At St. Paul's

In recognition of the great festival of All Saints, special services will be held tomorrow at the local Episcopal Church, St. Paul's in the Desert. A simply Holy Communion will be celebrated at 8 a.m., at which time names of the departed who have died during the past year will be memorialized, as will be the case at all subsequent services during the week.

The 9:15 a.m. Family Service will be marked by the use of the Choral Litany as a processional, with the children taking part. Also at the Family Service the Rector, the Rev. William A. Blanton, Jr., will explain the Christian meaning of the Halloween-All Saints Day cycle.

THE 11 A.M. SERVICE will be marked by a Choral Eucharist, using the Old-world modern setting for the Communion. The Rector will preach on the Church's concept of the communion of saints and the promise of eternal life.

FIRST PIPE ORGAN in the desert area will be installed at the new building of Our Savior's Lutheran Church here. Rev. Walter Reuning, right, and Leonard Dowling are shown with the $6,500 instrument. The organ will be played publicly for the first time at dedication ceremonies for the new church, scheduled for 4 p.m., Sunday, Nov. 9. Dowling is a Santa Monica pipe organ builder.

First Pipe Organ To Be Installed At Our Savior's

The first pipe organ in the Palm Springs area will play at dedication ceremonies of the new Our Savior's Lutheran Church Sunday, Nov. 9.

Now being installed at the church, the $6,500 instrument will be played at the dedication by T. M. Goehring, organist at Trinity Lutheran Church, Los Angeles.

Rev. Walter Reuning, church pastor, said dedication ceremonies will be conducted at 4 p.m.

Rev. Reuning said the new church building was designed to house the massive organ. A large chamber for its installation was provided directly behind the altar.

'The Throne of Grace' to Be Community Sermon Topic

Dr. James H. Blackstone Jr., will talk on "The Throne of Grace" at the 9:30 and 11 a.m. Sunday worship services of Palm Springs Community Church.

Dr. Blackstone's sermon is the fourth in a series taken from the New Testament "Epistle of the Hebrews."

THE CHANCEL Choir, under the direction of Elmer Young, will sing the anthem "Come Unto Me," by Beethoven. Mrs. Lois Lux will accompany the choir and Alex Hammond will sing "How Beautiful Upon the Mountain," for the Offertory.

A children's church and nursery is conducted during the 11 a.m. service, and Sunday school classes meet at 9:30 a.m. for all age groups, including the adult group which meets at the Woman's Club, and the young adults, who meet at the church manse, 251 San Jacinto Road.

'Mental Health Is Physical Health' to Be Sermon Topic

Mental Health Is Physical Health is the subject for discussion in the Churches of Religious Science this week. The Minister of the Palm Springs congregation, Rev. Lillian Caldwell, expects to rest her thesis on the platform that modern scientific research has brought into focus: namely, the two-phase nature of man's mind.

"Man is able to think consciously, and his subjective nature carries out the ideas impressed there on," Rev. Caldwell said. "We have many terms in current usage, which terms partially explain this power-house of creativity. It is variously called subconscious mind, the unconscious, subjectivity, and similar labels."

"ALL ARE ENDEAVORING to interpret what the Bible expressed in the words: 'As he thinketh in his heart, so is he.' 'In his heart' is the key phrase. It is this emotional or subjective phase of man's mentality which governs his physical health."

Taking that premise, and adding the recognition: "Know ye not that ye are the temple" — recognition of the Presence of Life within the living body—Rev. Caldwell structures her lesson on this subject toward the cleared concept what we feel about ourselves is authoritative order to the individual part in universal subjectivity — "As you believe, it is done unto you."

JUNIOR CHURCH activity is concurrent with the worship service, and parents are invited to leave their children at the Church Headquarters, 190 North Indian Avenue, for the graded instruction for all age levels, from four to 14. They are in charge of Mrs. Pauline Kliebe and her staff.

Starting at 10:30, at the Village Theater, Con Maffie plays an organ concert, using numbers of his own choice. At 10:45, Maffie plays music to background a silent meditation period which leads into the worship service. Visitors are invited to hear the radio and television organist in person prior to the church service.

Wednesday evenings at eight, at Headquarters, 190 North Indian, Minister Caldwell teaches "What We Believe." All are welcome.

Both Political Parties Have Much at Stake

By JAMES C. ANDERSON
United Press International
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Much is at stake for both political parties in next Tuesday's California election.

The Republicans, in power for 20 years in the nation's second most populous state, are in trouble and optimistic Democrats are predicting a major victory, perhaps even a sweep for their entire ticket.

U.S. SEN. WILLIAM F. Knowland the GOP candidate for governor, ran 662,000 votes behind the Democratic nominee, State Attorney General Edmund G. (Pat) Brown, 53, in the June primary election.

Since then Knowland has waged a shirt-sleeve, precinct-level campaign throughout the entire state, but almost all newspaper polls and other surveys still show Brown with a long lead.

KNOWLAND SAID last week that if he loses to Brown he would not expect to be a candidate for public office again. Thus a Brown victory would all but put an end to the presidential aspirations of the 50-year-old Knowland, who inherited the mantle of Republican Party leadership in the Senate from the late Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio.

In the equally important contest for the U. S. Senate, the Republican nominee, Gov. Goodwin L. Knight, 61, took a thumping in June from Rep. Clair Engle, 46.

RECENT POLLS and surveys show veteran campaigner Knight gaining on Engle but the distinct Democratic trend in the primary and in late voter registration puts Engle in the favorite's role.

Both President Eisenhower and Vice President Richard M. Nixon campaigned hard in California in the past month in an effort to bolster the GOP cause. Nixon, a native Californian and the likely Republican presidential nominee in 1962, raised about $600,000 for GOP coffers but failed in his major mission—to patch up personal and political differences between Knight and Knowland.

KNIGHT ORIGINALLY announced he would run again for governor but pulled out of that race when Knowland took aim at the same target. Knight never has endorsed Knowland nor supported him in the campaign although the senator has blessed Knight and the entire Republican slate.

Both major Republican candidates are on opposite sides of the fence on the controversial right-to-work initiative on the Nov. 4th ballot.

THE PROPOSAL would outlaw the union shop and is the keystone of Knowland's campaign for "Union Democracy" and labor union reforms. Knight sides with Brown Engle and the rest of the Democratic ticket in opposition to right-to-work.

Organized labor has pulled out all the stops in registering voters for the election and fighting right-to-work. Since the June primary, Democrats have added 333,000 voters while GOP registration is up only 123,000.

A total of 6,732,421 voters are eligible to cast ballots next Tuesday — 3,875,000 Democrats and 2,676,000 Republicans. For the first time in history, Democrats have more than a million - vote edge in registration over the GOP.

American housewives, industries, restaurants and other consumers purchased two billion 100 million dollars worth of coffee in 1957.

Palm Springs Races Under Way Today

Record Speeds Expected Sunday In Feature Races

Sports car motors burst into a roar this morning as approximately 80 of the fastest cars and speediest drivers started the two-day race program of the Fifteenth Palm Springs Sports Car races sponsored by the Sports Car Club of America, Los Angeles region, at the local airport.

Following a pre-race meeting at the Springs last night and an early morning briefing, practice runs started at 10 a.m. today followed by a five-race program.

TOMORROW, starting at 10:30 a.m., there will be five more races. Some of the earlier shorter events have been combined, reducing the planned program of eight races to five.

The big feature race, the 20-lap Matched Invitational has drawn some of the top cars and drivers in the nation.

It is limited to professional drivers and will be run at approximately 1:30 tomorrow afternoon. Speeds up to 165 mph are expected.

SAM HANKS, veteran driver, will give it an Indianapolis start as pace-maker. Cars and drivers in this big event are:

70—Max Balchewsky, Hollywood, 27—Bill Krause, D. Jaguar, Long Beach.
8—Bill Love, 4.9 Ferrari Corvette, 25—Monte.
283—Andy Porterfield, '58 Corvette, Los Angeles.
98—Carol Shelby, 5.7 Maserati, Dallas, Texas.
6—Bill Murphy, Buick Special, Culver City.
16—Lance Reventlow, Chev. Bearab. Beverly Hills.
440—Dr. Richard McClure, '58 Corvette, Redondo Beach.
15—Ned Yarter, '58 Corvette, La Cress.
188—Edin Holmes, Ford Special, Lancaster.
77—Bill Leyden, D. Jaguar, Los Angeles.
20—George Hara, Maserati, Fresno.
115—Fred Howard, Corvette, Los Angeles.
84—Dean Green, Buick Special, Long Beach.
6—Bob Murney, Lincoln Special, Long Beach.
7—Bill Blushock, Lincoln Special, Long Beach.
34—Hal Dolden, Lincoln Special, Los Angeles.

Phil Hill is also expected to be an entry in the feature. The Veteran Car race at five laps will draw a field of nine Indianapolis drivers as a co-feature with the 25-lap main event.

THERE WILL be a party for the entrants tonight at the Chi Chi and tomorrow morning a chuck-wagon breakfast in the pits to which the public is invited.

Tomorrow night there will be a victory banquet at the Shadow Mountain Club. Tomorrow's races will start at 10:30 a.m.

Brown Gets to Keep Southern Trophy

PINEHURST, N. C. (UPI) — J. Wolcott Brown, of Sea Girl, N. J., boasting his third victory in four years in the Southern Seniors golf championship, has retained the Jack Harkins Trophy presented to the winner.

Brown fired an even-par 71 Friday to nail down a 10-stroke victory in the event, which he also won in 1955 and 1957 when he got his first two legs on the trophy.

AWARD TO GRAHAM

NEW YORK (UPI) — Frank Graham, New York Journal-American sports columnist, has been named winner of the annual Grantland Rice Memorial Award of the sportsmanship brotherhood.

North Confident of Winning

Bowl Bid At Stake At Oregon

United Press International
Confidence, instead of well-worn pessimism, was the keynote among Northwest teams today which had tough games on the fire in the Pacific Coast Conference scramble.

Oregon State, which hosted California in the West's most important tilt, which may decide the Rose Bowl bid, went into the contest not only a one-point favorite but also on record as definitely "up" for this one. At least, that's the way assistant coach John Thomas has described the Beavers, who trail pace-setting Cal by a half game in the PCC standings.

And Coach Jim Sutherland of Washington State served notice that his Cougars did not intend to give the game away to UCLA in Los Angeles.

"UCLA will have to beat us because we are not going to beat ourselves," Sutherland said during the latter stages of practice. A homecoming crowd of about 45,000 was expected at Stanford Stadium where the Indians were six-point underdogs to Southern California.

Willie Wood, the Trojans' ace quarter-back, was expected to be back in fighting trim. He missed three games before he got back into action last week against Washington State. The he landed a 77-yard pass play which assured Troy a 14-6 upset.

One other PCC game featured Oregon at Washington.

OSAKA, Japan. (UPI)—Rain forced postponement until Tuesday of today's game between the St. Louis Cardinals and the Japanese All Stars at the Osaka Stadium.

The Cards have a record of four wins and one defeat this far.

HIGH SCHOOL GRID PLAYER DIES IN GAME IN TEXAS

DUMAS, Tex. (UPI) — Doctors planned an autopsy today in the death of Phillips High School right end Robert L. Bobby Moore, who died Friday night after an apparent injury in a football game.

Moore, a 17-year-old senior playing his second year of high school varsity football, failed to get up following a play against Dumas High.

Governor Knight Applauds Sun's Tennis Clinics

Second annual Tennis Clinics for youth of the Palm Springs area, which got under way today, drew commendation from California Governor Goodwin J. Knight in a telegram to Ward J. Ruvold, publisher of The Desert Sun, which is sponsoring the net lessons.

The governor wired Mr. Ruvold: May I extend my heartfelt congratulations to you and the members of your staff on the sponsoring of free tennis lessons for the children of your city. Programs such as this which you and Mr. Dave Gillam are so generous and thoughtful in presenting, are a magnificent effort in the behalf of the youth of all America. I congratulate you and your associates and wish you every possible success.

Is it through the efforts of people such as yourself that we have such a great American youth.

GOODWIN J. KNIGHT, Governor

Bears 4 Over L.A. Rams in Coliseum Tilt

By EARL WRIGHT

United Press International
The New York Giants pit the National Football League's top ranked defensive line against Jim Brown and the undefeated Browns at Cleveland in Sunday's key professional game.

Coach Paul Brown's high-scoring Browns 5-0 lead the runner-up Giants 3-1 by two games. If the Browns win Sunday, they will be three games in front with only six to play and the Eastern Division race will be virtually finished. The Browns are favored by 10 points.

The Baltimore Colts 5-0 are heavy, 12-point favorites to retain their one-game Western Division lead by defeating the visiting Green Bay Packers 1-3-1.

The Chicago Bears 4-1 are four-point picks to remain close on the Colts' heels by defeating the Rams 2-3 at Los Angeles.

The Forty-Niners 2-3 are 31-point choices to defeat the Detroit Lions 1-3-1 at San Francisco; the Chicago Cardinals 2-3 are favored over the Philadelphia Eagles 4-1 by six at Chicago, and the Washington Redskins 2-3 are favored over the Steelers 1-4 by 1½ at Pittsburgh.

Reseca 7-5 to Win In Frizette Stakes

NEW YORK. (UPI)—King Ranch's Reseca was a 7-5 favorite today to beat an expected field of 11th two-year-old fillies in the ninth running of the $89,150 Frizette at Jamaica.

Bassey Holds Up All Plans After Victory

By JACK CUDDY

NEW YORK. (UPI) — Featherweight champion Hogan Kid Bassey, who outpointed Carmelo Costa Friday night, halted all plans today pending the recovery of his critically sick manager.

Manager George Biddles, 54-year-old pub-keeper of Syson, Eng., was on the critical list with pneumonia at the Metropolitan Hospital. He had been taken to the hospital in an ambulance Wednesday.

Bassey of Nigeria, Africa, shortest of all featherweight champions, said, "there'll be no plans till George recovers. I'll visit him as soon as they'll let me in. And meanwhile I'm praying for him every hour."

The champion, a Methodist who now lives at Liverpool, Eng., knelt in the dressing room at Madison Square Garden Friday night and prayed for his "daddy" after the nationally televised and broadcast non-title bout.

He had just been informed that Biddles was on the critical list. Squat, bull-shouldered Hogan knew before the fight that his manager was in the hospital, and he planned to visit Biddles there as soon as the fight was finished.

For that reason he tried to stop Costa of Brooklyn in a hurry. He floored the speedily elusive Carmelo twice in the third round and gashed both his brows, but couldn't stop him.

Bassey, standing only 5-feet-3 and weighing 127 pounds to Costa's 128½, registered his ninth straight victory by the official rounds score, 6-3-1, 5-4-1, 8-2.

Coachella Valley's Arabs practically doused the hopes of the Palm Springs Indians for a Riverside County League football title when they squeaked by the Tribe 13 to 7 last night on the local gridiron.

The Arabs cashed in on an Indian mistake in the fourth quarter to go ahead after the Braves had been out in front 7-6 for almost the entire period.

THE DEFEAT dropped the Indians back into a 2-2 season mark and left Coachella undefeated and untied with a 4-0 record.

The break in the game came in the final period when Cleo James misjudged a high punt from the Arab fullback, Ron Alford.

Coachella recovered the fumble and in three plays went over for the winning TD. The PAT was good and the score was 13-7, the way it ended.

THE ARABS struck first, in the third play of the game after the kick-off when Gary Crystal, Arab backfield ace, took a hand-off and went 55 yards into pay dirt. The conversion attempt failed and it was 6-0.

In the third quarter, the Indians went ahead on a sustained drive with Cleo James repeatedly gaining yardage after returning the opening kick-off to the Arab 45. He finally plowed over and the kick by Joe Lewis was good. That made it 7-6 for the Indians.

THEN CAME the fumble in the final period which the Arabs grabbed on the Palm Springs 16 and barged over in a desperate clutch drive.

Ton Alford went over for the winning touchdown.

With but one play left, the Indians gave the crowd the biggest thrill of the evening when James hit Don Burke almost went all the way for the TD which would have tied it and could have won it. Burke was hit and slowed down and tackled on the Arab 20. The play covered 61 yards.

IN OTHER GAMES last night, Banning wrecked Peris with a 20-point fourth quarter, 26 to 7 at Peris.

San Jacinto clobbered Elsinore 39 to 0 on their home field and at Beaumont, the Beaumont Cougars romped over the Hemet Bulldogs, 33 to 13.

The high scores racked up in the other games knocked the Indians out of their position as top offensive tea in the loop.

Army Brass Trying to Dim Dawkins Publicity

By OSCAR FRALEY United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — Fearless Fraley's facts and figures:

The Army is the Army, where even four-star generals have to account to somebody higher, so it's understandable why the powers-that-be at West Point are putting the quietus on all the publicity attracted by a cadet named Pete Hawkins.

Dawkins has attracted so much attention in newspapers and magazines as a football player of All-America calibre who also is a top student and cadet leader that it seemed to some of the West Point brass that he might have to be graduated at least a full colonel. So a drive is on to cut down his personal publicity.

ONE PROSPECTIVE interviewer was told flatly: "We are anxious to dispel the myth of Dawkins as an individual."

He was told in no uncertain terms that there were other players on the Army football machine and he should go interview somebody else on "the team." Which probably is the way it ought to be even though it was nice for a while to think that those gray-clad kids all weren't faceless automatons.

So you think you're as tough as your old man, huh? Well, there's a lad named "junior" who plays tackle for Notre Dame and he'll be out this week with a sprained knee. His face must be red, Oh, yes, his name's Bronko Nagurski.

A VOTE FOR

Ending All Evil, Sin, Listed as Lesson Sermon

The Lesson - Sermon read in Christian Science churches Sunday expounds the theme that sin and all evil must be destroyed and that there is no relief gained from the penalties of sin and all evil until they are wiped out. The subject is "Everlasting Punishment."

From the Bible this descriptive reference is taken from the Lamentations of Jeremiah, "Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins? Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord" (3:29-40).

Correlating the Scripture are the words from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, "Passion, depraved appetites, dishonesty, envy, hatred, revenge ripen into action, only to pass from shame and woe to their final punishment." "We acknowledge God's forgiveness of sin in the destruction of sin and the spiritual understanding that casts out evil as unreal." (pp. 188, 497)

The Golden Text is from Psalms (130-7), "Let Israel hope in the Lord: for with the Lord there is mercy, and with him is plentiful redemption."

Hallowe'en Party Set Saturday

PALM DESERT — The Christian Youth Fellowship of the Palm Desert Community church will host a Hallowe'en party on Saturday night at 7 p.m.

The Youth Fellowship from Cathedral City and Coachella have been invited to attend the event, and a scavenger hunt and other games will be enjoyed by the guests along with the refreshments.

'Will Success Spoil Martin Beck?' Is Question After Opening of Play

By DON CABALLEROS

The big question today should be "Will Success Spoil Martin Beck?" Because in a long time of play presentations by the Palm Springs PlayerStage, none have been more entertaining, or as well done, as the Little Theater group's presentation of "Will Success Spoil Rock Hunter?"

ON STAGE NIGHTLY at El Paseo Theater until Nov. 9, the play is certain to be one of the most successful presentations of the PlayerStage.

Beck has pulled together a cast of amateur-professionals who seem to be living, rather than playing, the parts in which they are cast.

From the time that the first curtain raises until the final curtain call of the cast, applause and laughter are the only distractions from the steady stare of the audience.

VALERIE HALL, as Rita Marlow, the vivacious movie star, carries the audience through a side-splitting two hours of hip-swaying, sheet-clutching entertainment. Bill Milner, as a timid reporter-writer, who falls in love with Rita and literally sells his soul to Satan (well played by Lee Martin), and Dick Stevenson, another writer, whose love of money carried him magically through through Hollywood life, both give excellent performances.

The leads in the play are supported very well by the rest of the cast which includes Bernard Winarsky as the masseur; Virginia Blackman as the secretary, and Harry Kaye as Sam Fisher.

THE ONLY PART which drew any criticism at all was the part of Bronko, played by "George Spelvin" who takes the part of Rita's husband—a tough football star, who throws his weight around. He wasn't quite as tough as the part called for, even though he tried hard to bring out the type person he was playing.

The tracking range of the Air Force Missile Test Center at Cape Canaveral, Fla., is 5,000 miles long, extending through the Dominican Republic to Ascension Island halfway between Brazil and Africa.

No review would be complete without a mention of the staff behind the backdrop who did the job on lights, managing and set decoration. Stage manager was Sam Fisher; technical advisor, Howard Charnow; lighting, Joe Smith; sets and decoration, Gregg and Wynn and Anton Daiu; and art and layout, Lorraine Milner. It can be highly recommended: desert area residents and visitors should see "Will Success Spoil Rock Hunter?", a good presentation.

A.M. Liebling Seeks Relief From Deficiency Judgment

CHICAGO (UPI) — A hearing will be held before Lawrence Miller, federal referee in bankruptcy, Nov. 12 on a claim against A. M. Liebling, 78, of Palm Springs and Chicago, who seeks relief from a deficiency judgment levied against him on a $25,000 mortgage he guaranteed 30 years ago.

Liebling, who formerly owned considerable property on the West Coast, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in Palm Springs, over a year ago. It was transferred to Chicago later.

THE MORTGAGE claim was one of those against him.

An attorney for trustee Nathan York filed a claim, asking a judgment for the value of the mortgage plus accumulated interest, and claimed that Liebling's wife, Fay, and his daughter, Esther L. Frank, Palm Springs and Los Angeles, owned property which should be taken to satisfy the claim against Liebling.

Maurice Walsh, Liebling's attorney here, opposed the claim, arguing that property held by the wife and the daughter is not subject to the claim against Liebling.

Santa Claus Set For Christmas Parade in Indio

INDIO — A Christmas parade complete with a Santa Claus in full regalia will march through the streets of Indio the last week in November, it was announced today by Bob Brewington, chairman of the merchants committee of the Indio Chamber of Commerce.

Christmas street decorations with lights will be completed by Thanksgiving, Brewington said.

He also invited all Coachella Valley residents from Cathedral City to the Salton Sea to display a sticker on the bumpers of their car reading, "I helped Indio join the Rose parade." Variations on the same theme read "Don't be a stinker—donate for a sticker."

Play to Be Given For Float Fund

INDIO — "Will Success Spoil Rock Hunter?" by the Palm Springs Players Stage will be presented on Nov. 22 at the Coachella Valley Union High School auditorium, it was announced today by Art Ahrens, Rose Parade Float chairman of the Indio Chamber of Commerce.

All proceeds from the play will be donated to the float fund.

Palm Desert's 'Tripalong' Apartments Completed

TRIPALONG APARTMENTS, newest development in Palm Desert, will be completed this week by Sproul Homes, Inc., of Palm Desert. The 16-unit luxury apartment structure was built for William Boyd, television's "Hopalong," in Palm Desert. Designer of the project was Charles W. Doty, well known desert architect.

Newest Project In Palm Desert

Sproul Homes, Inc., of Palm Desert, today announced completion of the 16-unit "Tripalong" Apartment project for William Boyd, television's Hopalong Cassidy.

THE LUXURIOUS, modern apartment project features four individual buildings, forming a square around a figure-eight swimming pool designed by desert architect Bill Doty.

Real estate man Dick Coffin, who served as Boyd's agent during construction of the project—while the Boyds toured Europe—said each building has four, one-bedroom apartments.

EACH APARTMENT unit includes bedroom, living room, dining room and bath. All furnishings and decor were selected by Boyd and Coffin.

The entire project was built by the Sproul Company, which opened offices in the new Palm Desert Shopping Center last spring and has announced plans to develop a tract in that area this year.

THE FIRM ALSO has offices in Colorado Springs, where it constructed an entire city, known as "Security Village." This planned community has more than 2,500 Sproul-built homes, a complete shopping center, three elementary schools, a junior-senior high school, post office, fire station, sewer plant and water system.

Operated by Fred Sproul, Jr., 34-year-old firm president, Sproul, Inc., also maintains offices in Pueblo and Leadville, Colo., and Albuquerque, N.M., where it is rated as the second largest commercial builder in the state.

Palm Desert office executives, Superintendent R. T. Spannagel and manager Melvin Hoffner, announced that the firm has purchased 16 acres surrounding the new Catholic Church and is now completing plans for a "multi-million-dollar" development.

Bill, Lillian Phillips Are Resident Managers

Bill and Lillian Phillips of Colorado Springs and Palm Desert have been appointed resident managers of the new Tripalong apartments.

Although newcomers to the hotel management field in the desert area, Phillips was former owner-manager of his own hotel in Allentown, Pa., and later of Sully's and Bill's Dining and Cocktail Lounge in that city.

AS SALES EXECUTIVE for five years for the American Builders in Colorado Springs, he crossed the continent at least a half dozen times meeting all and varied types of people. Later, as owner of "Zucco's Interiors" he decorated many of the outstanding homes of the Broadmoor area.

In Palm Desert where Phillips is associate salesman with the Holiday Realty Corporation, he spent most of the summer months supervising the construction on the Tripalong apartments and was given the title of "Super Side-walk Superintendent."

Both Bill and Lillian Phillips are originally from Allentown, Pa., and Lillian, who has spent most of her married years as a housewife, is a popular figure on the golf courses at Shadow Mountain and Indian Wells Country Clubs.

TRIPALONG AGENT for Bill Boyd, owner of the luxurious new apartment building, was Dick Coffin, general manager of Holiday Realty Company in Palm Desert. Coffin was responsible for construction details while Boyd and his wife toured Europe during the summer. All furnishings and color decor were selected by Coffin and Boyd.

Taxpayers United Supports County Building Bond Issue

Officials of Taxpayers United, the organization credited by many for the defeat of the $5,500,000 county building bond issue in 1957, today went on record unanimously endorsing the four county bond issues to be voted upon next Tuesday, and issued the following statement:

"We are unanimously in favor of the four county bond issues and urge their support by the voters at the polls next Tuesday for the following reasons:

"1. Study of conditions in the county jail and county hospital prove that the new buildings are urgently needed for health and safety of the public.

"2. The Board of Supervisors and Administrative Officer are to be commended for their successful effort to hold down the county tax rate and their unanimous support of the bond issues.

"3. We believe the four bond issues will take care of the bonding needs of the county for many years and that any other essential housing needs of county government may be easily financed by the normal increase in property tax revenue and sales tax income.
"For the above reasons and to care for and protect the public we urge a yes vote next Tuesday."

New Temple Consecration Set Sunday

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Centuries-old ceremonies will consecrate the new Desert Hot Springs Jewish Community Temple-Center building Sunday.

Ceremonies begin at 2 p.m., with the traditional parading of the Torah, the Holy Scroll, from its temporary resting place to the temple.

The parade leaves El Reposo Hotel, on Fifth Street, proceeding directly to the new building on East Pierson Boulevard, at Ocotillo.

Torah bearers will wear their religious Tallis, or prayer shawls, and will be escorted by sheriff's deputies, members of the American Legion and its auxiliary and Jewish War Veteran Posts from neighboring communities.

Guests at the ceremonies include the Israel Consul-General for the western states, the majority leader of the Arizona State Senate, the West Coast dean of rabbis, Congressman D. S. Saund, Sheriff Joe Rice and Cantor Jacob Lomberg.

Mrs. Judy Dye Joins Office of Edith Eddy Ward

PALM DESERT — Mrs. Judy Dye, formerly of Los Angeles, is the newest member of the sales staff in the Edith Eddy Ward real estate office.

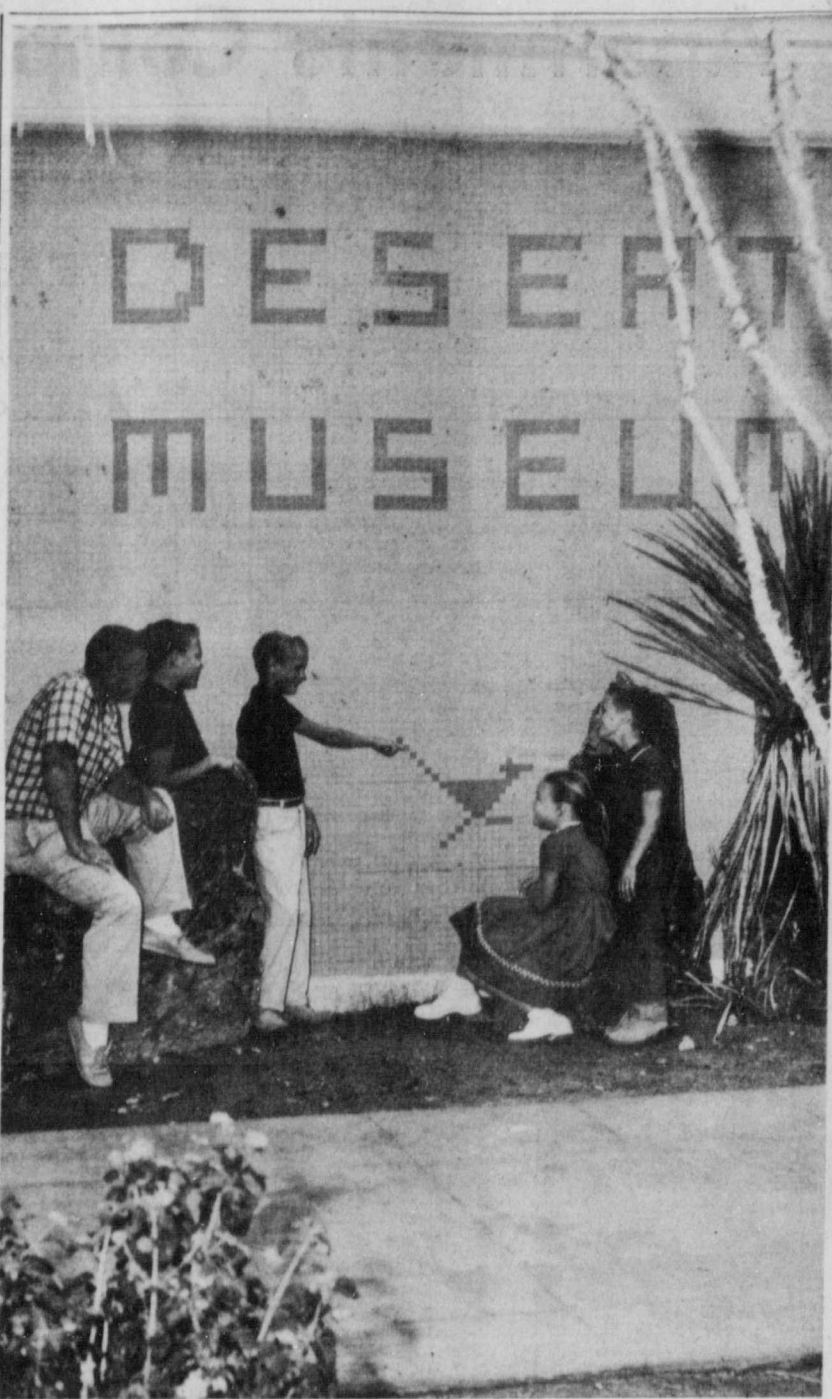

Mrs. Dye, who has resided in the desert area for the past 10 years, was at one time representative for Las Vegas and San Francisco hotels in Los Angeles.

Later, she became Los Angeles representative for a group of Palm Desert hotels and this introduced her to the desert where in turn she was associated with the Palm Desert Sales and the Valley of the Sun Estates.

Area Building Value Moves To $155,340

Heavy construction was registered in the unincorporated area adjacent to Palm Springs this week as builders started work on $155,340 worth of new projects.

Building permits for the area were issued by the Palm Desert county building department office to:

C. W. Nattress, 66-367 Fourth Street, Desert Hot Springs, sign, $200; Dominick Pizan, Snow Creek Drive, Palm Springs Oasis, garden wall, $420; F. F. Crocker, 68-176 Ramon Road, addition $1200; Warren Coyle and Press Construction Company, 22-860 Rancho Road, Palm Springs Oasis, 141 trailer spaces, valued at $141,000, two utility buildings at $5,556 each, and 22-869 Ranch Road, transformer vault, $1,408.

'Grab-Bag Party' Marks Birthday Of Jane Bramwell

PALM DESERT — A "Grab-bag party" in honor of Jane Bramwell's eighth birthday was held Sunday at the Leisure Loft and attended by 10 children of the Palm Desert area.

The grab-bag, tied with an enormous red bow, graced the center of the table and each guest, after receiving his (or her) individual gift of a candle shaped as cowboy or girl, drew from the bag novelty prizes and games which were enjoyed throughout the afternoon.

Among the children treated to ice cream bon-bons, chocolate cake and fruit punch, were Karen and Cathy MacConaty, Nancy Bramwell, Brian Moon, and Stanley, Brian, Dana and Denny Sniff.

Social Potluck Planned by CC Parent Group

CATHEDRAL CITY — Mrs. Howard Deason, president of the Cathedral City P.T.A. today announced that a Social Potluck supper will be held Thursday, Nov. 6, starting at 6:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Mrs. Harry Estel, Room Mother chairman, is in charge of arrangements. The potluck will precede the regular meeting of the P.T.A. The division of the 23rd District California Congress of Parents and Teachers, which has been under discussion at previous meetings, will be voted upon.

Cartoons will be shown following the business session.

Bekins Heads Scout Meeting

More than 20 Riverside County Scout leaders are expected to attend the annual regional meeting of the Boy Scouts of America at the Huntington - Sheraton Hotel in Pasadena Nov. 8.

Milo Bekins, regional chairman of Palm Springs and Beverly Hills, will preside at the meeting, which features election of new officers and staff members of the national Boy Scout organization. Principal speaker for the Saturday night meeting banquet is Dr. Arthur A. Schluick, chief scout executive.

Group Enjoys Golf and Bridge

PALM DESERT — A large group of ladies competed in the Women's Golf Association of the Shadow Mountain Club game.

Ruth Gerlock, Helen Teaze and Eileen Wood won low net in their respective flights.

Many social members were out practicing their "putting" in preparation for the annual "Mon Wallgren Trophy" putting contest, which is held in March.

Lunch and bridge in the grill of the Shadow Mountain Club were enjoyed afterwards.

Drivers Urged To Be Careful

PALM DESERT — Due to the number of near - accidents happening daily on the El Paseo Road which runs directly in front of and parallel to the new post office building, all drivers are urged to observe the two - way street and east or west - bound traffic, and keep to the right.

According to Postmaster Bill Myers, stop signs for this strategic corner have been requested and it is hoped that they will be erected shortly.

Carol Moore Named President Of Junior Choir

CATHEDRAL CITY — Carol Moore has been elected president of the Cathedral City Community Church Junior Choir, it was announced today.

Other officers elected at a choir meeting this week were Gary Patterson, vice president; Elizabeth Croom, secretary; Nancy Kramer, sergeant-at-arms, and Jeanette and Dick Lake, librarians.

Billy Hillman, Susie Hollister, Robin Woodfin and Carol Bentley were appointed to the robe committee. Phyllis Sing and Janis Lamb are property managers.

Other choir members are Linda Benton, Cris Karamanos, Sandy McKenzie, Zeida Shirley, Christine Sharp, Alice DeVall, Susan Carmahan, Linda Hand and Keith Woody.

Directed by Mary Hoover, the choir rehearses every Wednesday afternoon at the church hall and sings at the last Sunday worship service of each month.

Square Dance Site Changed

City Recreation Superintendent Howard Haddock today announced that square dances scheduled Tuesday, election day, for the Palm Springs Playhouse have been moved to the Horizon Trailer Park.

Haddock said the intermediate and advanced adult dances are transferred for this one night only because the playhouse will be used as a polling place.

Friend of City

Knight's Election Urged by Mayor

In a major political appeal by a local councilman, Mayor Frank Bogert today urged Palm Springs voters to cast their ballot for Goodwin J. Knight for United States Senator.

In the unusual request, Mayor Bogert pointed out that Knight, at present the Governor of California, is "a good friend of Palm Springs and a man we need in Washington."

"BECAUSE OF THE BIG problem facing Palm Springs and the Desert area in Indian Affairs and Federal Flood Control projects, the need for a man in Washington, who is a good friend of the area, is very important," said the mayor.

Important federal legislation is scheduled for the next session of congress, including the vital Agua Caliente Equalization Bill, the Tachevah Flood Control Project, and the possible purchase of the Palm Springs airport by the city.

"Our need for a friend, who knows and understands our particular problems, is of extreme importance," added Bogert, "and I feel that it is my duty as Mayor of Palm Springs to urge that local residents vote for Goodwin J. Knight for U. S. Senator from California."

Improvement Group to Hold Potluck Dinner

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Members of the Desert Hot Springs Improvement Association will meet tonight for a potluck dinner-meeting at Town Hall. The dinner is scheduled for 6:30 p.m., followed by the meeting at 7:30 p.m.

Principal speaker for the evening is William O. Macky, Riverside County district attorney, who will talk on "Late Law Enforcement Problems."

Mrs. Marguerite Burnesch, of the DHS Toastmistress Club, will talk on "Getting Out the Vote" and association members will discuss several community problems.

I WILL VOTE 'NO' on 16

I, John Babbage, Believe..

I believe my record as your Assemblyman proves that you will always know where I stand on the important issues of the day.

I believe my record proves that you can believe what I tell you.

I believe that your representative in Congress must be absolutely free of all commitments to special interest groups — labor, farm, foreign countries or any other.

I believe your representative should represent you and the other voters of this large 29th District, not the Southern cotton growers, the New York labor czars, or the international appeasers of Red China.

I believe that big labor must be made responsible for its acts and subject to the same general controls as big business.

I believe in full participation in the United Nations.

I believe that while we have freedom to live in a free society, under Communism we would only have the freedom to die.

I would consider it the greatest honor of my life to have the opportunity to serve the people of our district in Congress.

All Aboard Luncheon November 10

The "All Aboard Luncheon" at El Mirador at 1 p.m. November 10, which launches the social season of the Palm Springs Woman's Club, promises to be a colorful affair, according to the general chairman, Mrs. Charles German.

With balloons, serpentine, and other props of a ship boarding party, the beautiful Garden Room of El Mirador will be enchanting enough to bring nostalgic memories of a summer cruise.

Door prizes in charge of Mrs. David Carlin will be a feature of the day.

Luncheon will be followed by cards, under the supervision of Mrs. Irwin Wright, and each table will have a prize.

Guests may make up their own tables or they will be assigned partners if they are alone. Non-club members are welcome.

The large enthusiastic committee helping Mrs. German includes Mmes. Wesley Maddox, Duane Beckwith, Linn Merriman, Irwin Wright, Meade Horgiss, George Simmons, Roy Burton, David Carlin and Miss Hazel Gross.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. German, FA 5-6165 or Mrs. David Carlin, FA 4-2213.

Moose Women Ready Gifts For Christmas

It was Christmas in October when the Women of the Moose Palm Springs Chapter 1423 met Tuesday evening, for each member wrapped a Christmas gift to be sent to Mooseheart, to make a happy holiday for some youngster there.

During the business session plans were made for the coming months. Leading off in a parade of events will be a Hobo Dance, with Mickey Krings and Lois McCrystle as chairmen, on November 1.

A Dime-A-Dip, with a southern fried chicken menu, will be held at the Cathedral City clubhouse on November 9. This will be open to the public, from 3:30 to 6:30 p.m., and Mrs. Glenis Hopkins is in charge.

The Loyal Order of Moose has invited the women to join them in a Fun Night program at the clubhouse on the polo grounds on the evening of November 12.

Senior Regent Betty Reinheart brought the meeting to a close and refreshments were served by a committee headed by Marie Clark.

A quick barbecue sauce is made with equal parts of molasses and prepared mustard.

Put Pickle in The Middle

ROCHESTER, N. Y. — (UPI) — When hamburger is on the menu, try filling it with cheese and relish spreads.

Test kitchens of the R. T. French Co. prepared recipes which may be used by indoor or outdoor chefs.

Allow 1/4 pound ground beef for each hamburger. Press gently in to 2 thin patties, about 4 inches across. Spread or arrange one of the following fillings on one patty, leaving 1/2 inch around the edge for sealing. Top with second patty, pressing edges together. Broil on each side. Sprinkle lightly with salt and pepper and serve on toasted buns.

To make the fillings: Spread patty with mustard, place a thin slice of onion in the center and top with spoonful of pickle relish. Or cream 1/4 pound butter, 1/4 pound Roquefort or blue cheese and 3 tablespoons mustard. Another filling combines a thin layer of mustard, two cubes processed cheese and a spoonful of pickle relish.

Price Tag Racket Is Under Fire

By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press International
WASHINGTON — (UPI) — Millions of American consumers are being played for suckers by a fictitious pricing racket that appeals to bargain hunters.

The Federal Trade Commission, the Better Business Bureau, and the Advertising Federation of America are working hard to stamp out the racket. But they won't get far until individual consumers wise up to tricks that are being played on them.

There are many different gimmicks, say FTC officials, but they all are aimed at the same end: Making you think a product is being offered at a "marked-down," "sacrifice" or "bargain" price, when it actually is selling at a normal retail price with full mark-up.

This simple rule will keep a shopper from falling into any of these traps: Buy on the basis of the "now" price, and ignore all claims about the "former price," the "regular" price, or the "suggested price."

One of the most widespread forms of price trickery is called "pre-ticketing." The price tag clearly says $9.95, but the product is advertised for $4.95. Sometimes this reflects a genuine bargain — the store has marked down a slow-moving item for clearance. But it also can mean that the retail price was $4.95 all along, and the $9.95 ticket was stuck on simply to make the shopper think she is getting a bargain.

Some shoppers have become cynical about "mark-downs" that are documented only by the retailer's own price tags. So refinements have been introduced in pre-ticketing. The sophisticated approach now is to have the phony "regular" price emblazoned on the package by the manufacturer.

Sometimes this kind of "cooperation" between manufacturer and merchant is carried even further, with the consumer as the victim.

Recently the FTC charged a firm in New York with putting $1.95 price tags on hosiery and advertising this price in nationally-circulated magazines.

Small quantities of the stockings actually were sold in retail stores at $1.95 a pair. Then the manufacturer sharply reduced its wholesale price and aided the cooperating retail stores in putting on huge "half-price sales."

The stockings sold like hot cakes at 99 cents a pair — to women who had "seen them advertised at $1.95."

"Protecting the public from spurious bargains like these has become one of our major concerns," said Harry A. Babcock, executive director of the FTC.

"Unless we can bring an end to this trickery, the day will come when reputable merchants, in order to survive, will be forced to the same tactics. The result would be that consumers would lose confidence in all price advertising."

Babcock said more than 30 per cent of the orders issued by the FTC in the past year have been aimed at phony price claims.

The Commission is preparing to issue a new eight-point guide to industry on what kinds of price claims are illegal.

It is hoped that this spelling out of the rules will have a salutary effect on essentially honest manufacturers and retailers who are tempted to join the phony pricing racket on the theory that "everybody's doing it."

The FTC's biggest hope for stamping out the racket lies in educating consumers to do a little old-fashioned shopping before buying "bargains" marked down from fictitious "regular" prices.

"There will always be hucksters," said Earl W. Kintner, FTC general counsel. "But a more sophisticated public will reduce their profits."

If olive oil or cooking oil is used to lubricate kitchen appliances the disagreeable thought of motor oil dripping into food can be eliminated.

Sweaters and other garments that might be marked by regular ironing can be pressed by holding a steam iron slightly above them.

Sorority Installs New Chapter

An impressive candlelight ceremony was held Monday evening at the Desert Air Hotel as Palm Springs Sigma Gamma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held a Pledge Ritual and installation of officers for the newly formed Chi Theta Chapter of Cathedral City.

At a colorful table decorated with yellow roses and yellow and black candles, Amelia Irvine, president of Sigma Gamma, read the Pledge Ritual to pledges Maria Brown, Lola Sherrill, Leona Smith, True Slocum, Sharon McCall, Betty Quesada, Elizabeth Ann Bush, Alma Jones, Angela Shurley and Margaret Davidson.

Loleta Waller, extension officer of Sigma Gamma Chapter, installed the first executive board of Chi Theta. The new chapter is headed by Maria Brown as president. Lola Sherrill will serve as vice president; Leona Smith, extension officer; True Slocum, recording secretary; Sharon McCall, treasurer, and Betty Quesada, corresponding secretary.

Members of Sigma Gamma who gathered to honor their Friendly Venture Chapter were: Frances Blondon, Eunice Crooke, Eddie DeLong, Jane Dill, Marie Ford, Millie Herbert, Amelia Irvine, Bettie Lacy, Eleanor Noyes, Fayne Pritchett, Martha Scott, Betty Strobe, Loleta Waller, Lillian Grusenmeyer, Marge Hayes, and members-at-large Marilyn Mason and Marjorie Griffith.

Following the ceremonies, refreshments of petits fours, ice cream and coffee were served by the Friendly Venture committee: Loleta Waller, Lillian Grusenmeyer, Maria Ford and Amelia

MEMBERSHIP LUNCHEON of Palm Springs B'nai B'rith Women to be held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Sam Black, will have as its speaker Mrs. Irving L. Wieder, 2nd vice president of the Grand Lodge, District 4.

Membership Luncheon Wednesday

"Astound the World in Eighty Days" is the theme for the membership drive of all the B'nai B'rith chapters throughout the world. In keeping with their 115th birthday, a concentrated effort is being made to enroll members for this benevolent and service organization.

Elaborate plans are being made for the Membership Luncheon and Sherry Party which is being held Wednesday, November 5, in the gardens of the home of Mrs. Sam Black, 801 So. Sunrise Way, at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Irving L. Wieder, 2nd vice president of the Grand Lodge, District No. 4, will be the guest speaker. Mrs. Wieder, a very charming and dynamic personality, has an illustrious background of B'nai B'rith. She is also an officer of the Van Nuys P-TA Council, and chairman of the Women's Council of Los Angeles County Conference and Community Relations. Mrs. Wieder will present the seven-fold program of B'nai B'rith in its entirety, and will conduct a workshop the following day.

Mrs. Charles Kabaker, membership chairman, urges all members and friends to attend this gala event, and promises a most interesting and delightful afternoon. Entertainment will follow the program.

For reservations, please call Mrs. David Lager, FA 5-5796 or Mrs. Jack Auerbach, FA 5-7374.

When adding fruit to basic gelatin salads, use 1 cup of fruit for each cup of liquid. Sugar is counted as part of the liquid.

PARTY TIPS

WESTFIELD, Mass. — (UPI) — Enjoying your own party is as much an art as seeing that guests have fun, says Miss Catherine L. O'Brien.

As president of a firm which relies on parties for sales (Stanley Home Products, Inc.), she has found these tips helpful:

So you won't be upset by unexpected guests—or those who failed to R.S.V.P. — allow about 10 percent leeway in food. Tell in your invitation when you expect guests to arrive and leave. They can plan on baby sitters, and you can plan ample refreshments.

Arrange the party scheduled beforehand so you know exactly what to do, then relax.

Don't clean house the day of the party. Frantic last-minute cleaning only leaves you tired and grouchy.

Don't introduce every newcomer after the first few persons have arrived. Leave that to the guests.

Invite a congenial group, but don't omit someone because a few guests don't get along with him. A comedian once said there should be someone at a party that everybody hates, just to keep things interesting.

After grating fresh, soft cheese, rub a hard crust of bread across the grater to clean it.

freshments of petits fours, ice cream and coffee were served by the Friendly Venture committee: Loleta Waller, Lillian Grusenmeyer, Maria Ford and Amelia

Gives Luncheon And Card Party

Mrs. Tom Holland of 277 West El Portal, entertained in her home Tuesday afternoon at a luncheon and card party.

Among her guests were Mmes. Earle Arnold, Clare Kinne, Lee Havener, Katherine Gentry, Brian Sanders, Maynard Groth and Elsie Diedrich of Glendale.

A rubber tipped bobby pin is handy for picking up dropped knitting stitches. It will hold the stitches in place until you are ready to knit them.

Your Ticket to... DYNAMIC STATESMANLIKE LEADERSHIP in the U. S. SENATE

"I would be ashamed of my heritage if I had no wish to preserve it for others. America has never been timid. The United States Senate is symbolic to the world of our strength, determination and integrity. I will be in the forefront in supporting the President in a second Monroe Doctrine to protect the integrity of the small nations'.... Goodwin J. Knight.

THIS IS THE HOUR FOR STATESMANSHIP

Goodwin J. Knight represents the best in Americanism to the world. Pioneer, veteran, scholar, judge, legislator, administrator—and above all a man of world-wide vision in the western, liberal tradition, he will be symbolic of United States statesmanship as United States Senator.

TRULY REPRESENTATIVE

As a Judge, legislator and administrator, Governor Knight has been truly representative of all the people of California. As Senator, he will continue to be a spokesman of all Americans on the international scene.

REPUBLICAN WORKERS prepare for election day by setting up a motor pool which will be at the disposal of any voter, regardless of political affiliation. The Republican headquarters will be open all day election day, and a telephone call to FA 5-6600 will bring a car to the disposal of the person who needs a ride to the polls. The workers, all dressed in Western attire, are, left to right, Mesdames Ernest Dunlevie, Earl Cordrey, Mary Hurrell, Ray Beezley, Miss Gayle Hicks, and Mrs. Georgina Poston. (Desert Sun Photo)

What The Blazes!

BODEGA BAY, Calif. — (UPI) — A fire in the fire commissioner's car parked outside the fire house disrupted a meeting of the fire department women's auxiliary one night recently.

The vice president, Mrs. S. S. Darling, quickly showed why she had been elected to a position of leadership in the auxiliary of the Bodega Bay Fire Department. Mrs. Darling spotted the flames first, yelled "Fire!" rushed outside and extinguished the blaze.

Smoke (and water) damage was confined to the front seat of the car of Fire Commissioner William Garden, who had been attending the auxiliary meeting to bring the women up to date on fire fighting techniques.

The Tokyo department store in Tokyo has under its roof six railway and subway stations as well as a streetcar terminal.

In Palm Lane Estates

Jack Meiselman Plans 14 New Homes

Palm Springs home builder Jack Meiselman today announced the immediate construction of 14 new homes in Palm Lane Estates.

Meiselman, who next plans to build 45 Vista Chino area homes, said a model of his new housing enterprise is now open for inspection at 264 Debby Drive.

INDIVIDUALLY STYLED by resort architects, the new, three-bedroom dwellings are centrally located in the area east of Sunrise Way and west of Sunset Way. Each unit, Meiselman said, boasts Youngstown Steel kitchens, Westinghouse refrigerators, fenced yards, refrigerated air conditioning and two baths, both with outside entrances.

CONSTRUCTION IS lath and plaster and quality is tailored to meet "the rigid examination and requirements" of Coachella Valley Savings and Loan Association, financing agent for the new homes, Meiselman said.

Caveman 'Muzak'

MERIDEN, Conn. — (UPI) — There's nothing modern about music to work by, according to an official of Business Music, Inc. Joseph Walthier said music to reduce boredom and increase efficiency has been used "as far back as we can go in history." He added: "Even the caveman when he broke one stone against another often grunted. This, in a very crude form, was early work music. It was rhythm and it helped him to get a little more strength for successive blows on the rock."

The George Gannon Real Estate Agency is sole agent for sale of the units.

Pointing out that "no two houses are alike," Meiselman noted that all the homes are designed for resort living by desert architects and built through local suppliers and sub-contractors.

DECOR IS BY Arthur Elrod, A.I.D., who decorated the model unit in contemporary modern, employing new features he displayed at the recent interior decorator's show in Los Angeles.

Special features cited by Meiselman include Schlage hardware throughout. He also noted that bathrooms open onto the patio and pool area.

SWIMMING POOLS are optional.

al and may be installed through arrangements made by the builder with Hoams Construction Company.

Meiselman said his new dwellings are priced to sell "from $21,657 up."

He added that he will soon start on 45 homes in the area of Vista Chino Drive.

NO BALLOON PAYMENTS

ALL JACK MEISELMAN HOMES ARE FINANCED BY COACHELLA VALLEY SAVINGS & LOAN

The purchaser of any home financed by COACHELLA VALLEY SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION can rest assured that all titles are free of any hidden encumbrances. A title insurance policy guarantees that the title is as it is stated to the Association.

As a further precaution, the property is recorded at a specified time and photographed. This prevents any liens being filed prior to the time of recording. COACHELLA VALLEY SAVINGS AND LCAN ASSOCIATION disburses funds on the order system. Releases are obtained on all material and labor which insures the owner against all possible mechanic liens.

As each stage of construction is reached, a rigid inspection is made before money is released from the principal of the loan. This makes quality a "must" throughout the entire period of construction. Payments are set up to include interest, insurance, taxes and principal. This is known as an amortized loan and is completely paid off at a predetermined date, leaving no "balloon payment" at the end. If the owner wishes, the loan may be repaid at an earlier date without penalty. Proper financing demands a better constructed home.
